

NMBI Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Registered Nurses and Registered Midwives – Putting it into Practice

10th October 2014, Friday

Workshop Venue: Ashling Hotel, Parkgate Street, Dublin 8

Objectives:

- Familiarise participants with the new Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics
- Provide a brief history of its development
- Explore the Code's principles, values and standards of conduct and their application to topical professional practice and ethical concerns.
- Exchange ideas and strategies for sharing and encouraging the professions' awareness, understanding and application of the new Code

11am – Welcome and Introductions

11:10 – Overview of the New Code

11:30 - Small Group Discussion – applying the Code in practice (supported by facilitators)

12:10 - Group Feedback

12:50 – Close - Light Lunch